

North Carolina Test of Student Writing

COMPOSITION CRITERIA

[unofficial]

INSTRUCTIONS: The composition criteria categories used in scoring the tests of student writing in the State of North Carolina are applicable across the country as a basis for essay writing assessment. This framework uses those four main criteria and suggests reading and comprehension strategies that can be used to help students improve their proficiency on the various components.

